Englewood Art Center, a division of Ringling College of Art and Design, is a non-profit organization whose mission is to bring together adults and children interested in visual arts to promote knowledge, appreciation and development of visual arts to the southern Sarasota and Charlotte Counties in Florida.

Staffed primarily by volunteers, the center includes two gallery spaces, three classrooms, pottery studio, a lending library and gift shop. Funding is provided by membership & course fees, proceeds from special events, endowments, and contributions by supporters.

Be sure to visit our website for current gallery schedules, events and classes
